SURVEY METHODOLOGY

- Survey was conducted June 1-6, 2022 under the direction of Ronald A. Fauchaux, Ph.D., CEO of Fauchaux Strategies, LLC, New Orleans and Washington, D.C.
- Survey based on a representative sample of completed interviews with 800 adults 18-years-old and older in the City of New Orleans.
- Interviews conducted by live, professionally trained telephone interviewers via cell phones (78%) and landlines (22%).
- Margin of error for full sample: +/- 3%
- Racial composition of sample: 59% African American, 33% white, 8% other.
- Neighborhood definition:
 - Lakeview/Lake Vista/Lakeshore/Lakewood/Mid-City/Bayou St. John/CBD
 - Uptown/Garden District/Carrollton/Arts District/Central City
 - Gentilly/French Quarter/Esplanade Ridge/Treme/Marigny/Bywater/St. Roch/Lower 9/Gentilly Terrace/UNO/Dillard/Fillmore/Lake Terrace/Lake Oaks/Pontchartrain Park
 - New Orleans East
 - Algiers

OVERVIEW

- Public satisfaction with the NOPD is at the lowest point since 2009 (33%). It has dropped 19 points since 2021, 24 points since 2020 and 31 points since 2016.
- On handling seven specific law enforcement tasks, only 7% to 26% of residents rate the NOPD excellent or good while 68% to 88% rate the department poor or only fair.
- Neighborhood satisfaction with the NOPD remains above 50%, but it has dropped 12 points since 2021, 15 points since 2020 and 19 points since 2016.
- Heavy majorities of residents (between 60% and 92%) favor eight specific proposals to reduce crime.
- 24% of residents say police brutality and misconduct have decreased in recent years, while 16% say it's increased. However, most residents (53%) believe it remains the same.
- 84% believe the crime problem has worsened over the past year and only one-fourth of city residents now think the city is safe. However, seven-out-of-ten city residents believe their own neighborhoods are safe.

KEY SURVEY TAKEAWAYS

Since last year's survey:

- Satisfaction with NOPD has fallen 19 points from 52% to 33%. Public satisfaction with the police department is now at the lowest point since 2009. It has dropped 17 points among Blacks and 22 points among Whites.
